

DAILY DEMOCRAT

MINIATURE ALMANAC.

FRIDAY,	SUN.	MON.	TUE.	WED.	THU.	FRI.	SAT.	SUN.
Feb. 16.	Feb. 17.	Feb. 18.	Feb. 19.	Feb. 20.	Feb. 21.	Feb. 22.	Feb. 23.	Feb. 24.
22 Monday... 6 44 5 16	23 Tuesday... 6 43 5 15	24 Wednesday... 6 43 5 18	25 Thursday... 6 41 5 19	26 Friday... 6 39 5 20	27 Saturday... 6 39 5 21	28 Sunday... 6 37 5 23	Feb. 29. New moon 18 1 3 5	Feb. 1. Full moon 18 1 3 5

PRIDE, Feb. 16, 1855.

112 For MERCHANTS, Auction Sales &c. see appropriate heads.

DEMOCRATS OF JEFFERSON COUNTY, KY.

You are requested to meet at Jeff town, on Saturday, 17th day of February, 1855, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Frankfort, on the 15th day of March, 1855.

There should be a full representation, as it is highly important that the assembled who will go as delegates, Old Jefferson should be well represented on that occasion.

113 We call the attention of dry goods dealers to the advertisement of James Low & Co., in today's paper.

114 Mr. C. C. Spencer has another large sale of furniture, at his auction room, No. 50 Fourth street, this morning, at 10 o'clock. See his advertisement.

115 The North Carolina Legislature has chartered a company to construct a canal from Pamlico Sound to Chocowinity Bay, and resolved to endorse its bonds to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

116 Wells & Armstrong, merchant tailors, Fifth street, Marble Hall buildings, advertise to the trade that they have received T. P. Whiffen's annual and summer report for 1855. Attention is directed to one of his principal cities.

117 Remond Dissertation.—A Washington letter says: "A distinction of one of our financial officers under the present administration, to a large amount, is severely whip-sawed here as having received new dues since. The gentleman is a resident of one of our principal cities."

118 Lopez & Handbary have received a lot of extra cigar cases. Among the brands they have one that sports the whip-saw name "Know Nothing." "Well, the name is awful, but the cigars are not. It is this only living with that name appertaining to goodness within the scope of our knowledge."

119 The Wisconsin papers inform us that Booth and Reynolds were not discharged from the custody of the United States Marshall because the Fugitive Slave law was unconstitutional, but because the indictment did not charge that Glover, who escaped from labor, was a slave, and therefore the office charged was not a crime.

120 Two men attending the races at Charleton, named Arthur Conner and A. Thompson, got into an alteration, which is said to have originated in Baltimore, when the former shot the latter through the cheek, inflicting a severe, but not, it is thought, a dangerous wound.

121 Brigham Young is building two large and beautiful houses adjoining which he occupies in Salt Lake City, to accommodate his increasing family. He has rejected in between fifty and sixty wives, and from forty to fifty children. Elder Kimball, one of the Mormon Apostles, has between sixty and seventy extra-sorts.

122 Messrs. S. G. Henry & Co. request us to call the attention of buyers to their sale of groceries, liquors, manufactured tobacco and glassware, this morning, Friday, at auction room. They also sell for account of insurance Company, several tapers and grain cartons, partially damaged by water at the late fire at the Gale House.

123 A letter from San Francisco, of date of Jan. 16, published in the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser, announces the loss of the Pacific mail company's steamer Isthmus, on the Oregon coast, in attempting to cross the bar to very heavy weather. Sixty-four, or fifty, and a half, passengers were lost, and from forty to fifty crew. Elder Kimball, one of the Mormon Apostles, has between sixty and seventy extra-sorts.

124 The world smiles.—"The world smiles, and is all rising last night—whether from the rain on Tuesday last, or from a gorse some where below, was a matter of doubt; but the most natural explanation is that a cloud at 6 o'clock, a mile above, had given way, and was receding at dark. Licking is swelling slowly and ice forming, rat." Capt. Guthrie informs us that he could not find his proses of marriage. Then when he tried to push her into an untenanted building, when she said, "No, I am the last habitation in the world." It is now, after a long examination, that he has exchanged at the request of the prosecution.—Col. Columbian, Thursday.

125 The world smiles upon the rich man; it looks at his list, it is perfect, sleek and smooth as by his own check—at his coat, it is new and glossy; at his vest, it is the most and most approved pattern—at his pants, his tailor must be a genius or a creature—at his patent leather boots, they are spotless and speckless—at his fine kid gloves, the last importation—at his case or walking accoutrements, it is gold or silver or gold and silver; the last word is not a fit for the heart, or whether the world has a heart—the world can rep no good from the world's heart—that is for us private use, if it needs such a possession. The statesman may be a gambler, get wealthy, then, a liar or fool of hyperbole, a wise and witty, and the world don't know it; and if it doesn't, he will get an insight into the workings of the compound—this mixture of all and water—and he will confess that the compound is capable of some things which the nature of its elements appear to forbid. The world can smile—the world does smile.

126 But on whom, and how?

127 Atchison, Feb. 15.—W.

128 The river swelled a little, but not sufficiently to give a general breaking up of the ice, which is moving from below in disconnected. The going at Shawnee is gone. The weather is cloudy and damp, but cooler than it was yesterday, but the river continues to run.

129 LICKING.—The ice at Brownsville is running and the river is rising rapidly.

130 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

131 The river has risen one foot. The weather is cool, with a light fall of snow.

132 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

133 The river has a foot and a half, and is full of floating ice. The Forest Queen, from Aurora, has arrived, but there has been no departure.

134 The weather is cold.

135 We call the attention of dry goods dealers to the advertisement of James Low & Co., in today's paper.

136 Mr. C. C. Spencer has another large sale of furniture, at his auction room, No. 50 Fourth street, this morning, at 10 o'clock. See his advertisement.

137 The North Carolina Legislature has chartered a company to construct a canal from Pamlico Sound to Chocowinity Bay, and resolved to endorse its bonds to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

138 WELLS & ARMSTRONG, merchant tailors,

5th street, Marble Hall buildings, advertise to the trade that they have received T. P. Whiffen's annual and summer report for 1855. Attention is directed to one of his principal cities.

139 Remond Dissertation.—A Washington letter says: "A distinction of one of our financial officers under the present administration, to a large amount, is severely whip-sawed here as having received new dues since. The gentleman is a resident of one of our principal cities."

140 Lopez & Handbary have received a lot of extra cigar cases. Among the brands they have one that sports the whip-saw name "Know Nothing." "Well, the name is awful, but the cigars are not. It is this only living with that name appertaining to goodness within the scope of our knowledge."

141 The Wisconsin papers inform us that Booth and Reynolds were not discharged from the custody of the United States Marshall because the Fugitive Slave law was unconstitutional, but because the indictment did not charge that Glover, who escaped from labor, was a slave, and therefore the office charged was not a crime.

142 Two men attending the races at Charleton, named Arthur Conner and A. Thompson, got into an alteration, which is said to have originated in Baltimore, when the former shot the latter through the cheek, inflicting a severe, but not, it is thought, a dangerous wound.

143 Brigham Young is building two large and beautiful houses adjoining which he occupies in Salt Lake City, to accommodate his increasing family. He has rejected in between fifty and sixty wives, and from forty to fifty children. Elder Kimball, one of the Mormon Apostles, has between sixty and seventy extra-sorts.

144 The world smiles.—"The world smiles, and is all rising last night—whether from the rain on Tuesday last, or from a gorse some where below, was a matter of doubt; but the most natural explanation is that a cloud at 6 o'clock, a mile above, had given way, and was receding at dark. Licking is swelling slowly and ice forming, rat." Capt. Guthrie informs us that he could not find his proses of marriage. Then when he tried to push her into an untenanted building, when she said, "No, I am the last habitation in the world." It is now, after a long examination, that he has exchanged at the request of the prosecution.—Col. Columbian, Thursday.

145 The world smiles upon the rich man; it looks at his list, it is perfect, sleek and smooth as by his own check—at his coat, it is new and glossy; at his vest, it is the most and most approved pattern—at his pants, his tailor must be a genius or a creature—at his paten leather boots, they are spotless and speckless—at his fine kid gloves, the last importation—at his case or walking accoutrements, it is gold or silver or gold and silver; the last word is not a fit for the heart, or whether the world has a heart—the world can rep no good from the world's heart—that is for us private use, if it needs such a possession. The statesman may be a gambler, get wealthy, then, a liar or fool of hyperbole, a wise and witty, and the world don't know it; and if it doesn't, he will get an insight into the workings of the compound—this mixture of all and water—and he will confess that the compound is capable of some things which the nature of its elements appear to forbid. The world can smile—the world does smile.

146 But on whom, and how?

147 Atchison, Feb. 15.—W.

148 The river swelled a little, but not sufficiently to give a general breaking up of the ice, which is moving from below in disconnected. The going at Shawnee is gone. The weather is cloudy and damp, but cooler than it was yesterday, but the river continues to run.

149 LICKING.—The ice at Brownsville is running and the river is rising rapidly.

150 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

151 The river has risen one foot. The weather is cool, with a light fall of snow.

152 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

153 The river has a foot and a half, and is full of floating ice. The Forest Queen, from Aurora, has arrived, but there has been no departure.

154 The weather is cold.

155 We call the attention of dry goods dealers to the advertisement of James Low & Co., in today's paper.

156 Mr. C. C. Spencer has another large sale of furniture, at his auction room, No. 50 Fourth street, this morning, at 10 o'clock. See his advertisement.

157 The North Carolina Legislature has chartered a company to construct a canal from Pamlico Sound to Chocowinity Bay, and resolved to endorse its bonds to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

158 WELLS & ARMSTRONG, merchant tailors,

5th street, Marble Hall buildings, advertise to the trade that they have received T. P. Whiffen's annual and summer report for 1855. Attention is directed to one of his principal cities.

159 Remond Dissertation.—A Washington letter says: "A distinction of one of our financial officers under the present administration, to a large amount, is severely whip-sawed here as having received new dues since. The gentleman is a resident of one of our principal cities."

160 Lopez & Handbary have received a lot of extra cigar cases. Among the brands they have one that sports the whip-saw name "Know Nothing." "Well, the name is awful, but the cigars are not. It is this only living with that name appertaining to goodness within the scope of our knowledge."

161 The Wisconsin papers inform us that Booth and Reynolds were not discharged from the custody of the United States Marshall because the Fugitive Slave law was unconstitutional, but because the indictment did not charge that Glover, who escaped from labor, was a slave, and therefore the office charged was not a crime.

162 Two men attending the races at Charleton, named Arthur Conner and A. Thompson, got into an alteration, which is said to have originated in Baltimore, when the former shot the latter through the cheek, inflicting a severe, but not, it is thought, a dangerous wound.

163 Brigham Young is building two large and beautiful houses adjoining which he occupies in Salt Lake City, to accommodate his increasing family. He has rejected in between fifty and sixty wives, and from forty to fifty children. Elder Kimball, one of the Mormon Apostles, has between sixty and seventy extra-sorts.

164 The world smiles.—"The world smiles, and is all rising last night—whether from the rain on Tuesday last, or from a gorse some where below, was a matter of doubt; but the most natural explanation is that a cloud at 6 o'clock, a mile above, had given way, and was receding at dark. Licking is swelling slowly and ice forming, rat." Capt. Guthrie informs us that he could not find his proses of marriage. Then when he tried to push her into an untenanted building, when she said, "No, I am the last habitation in the world." It is now, after a long examination, that he has exchanged at the request of the prosecution.—Col. Columbian, Thursday.

165 The world smiles upon the rich man; it looks at his list, it is perfect, sleek and smooth as by his own check—at his coat, it is new and glossy; at his vest, it is the most and most approved pattern—at his pants, his tailor must be a genius or a creature—at his paten leather boots, they are spotless and speckless—at his fine kid gloves, the last importation—at his case or walking accoutrements, it is gold or silver or gold and silver; the last word is not a fit for the heart, or whether the world has a heart—the world can rep no good from the world's heart—that is for us private use, if it needs such a possession. The statesman may be a gambler, get wealthy, then, a liar or fool of hyperbole, a wise and witty, and the world don't know it; and if it doesn't, he will get an insight into the workings of the compound—this mixture of all and water—and he will confess that the compound is capable of some things which the nature of its elements appear to forbid. The world can smile—the world does smile.

166 But on whom, and how?

167 Atchison, Feb. 15.—W.

168 The river swelled a little, but not sufficiently to give a general breaking up of the ice, which is moving from below in disconnected. The going at Shawnee is gone. The weather is cloudy and damp, but cooler than it was yesterday, but the river continues to run.

169 LICKING.—The ice at Brownsville is running and the river is rising rapidly.

170 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

171 The river has risen one foot. The weather is cool, with a light fall of snow.

172 CINCINNATI, Feb. 15.—W.

173 The river has a foot and a half, and is full of floating ice. The Forest Queen, from Aurora, has arrived, but there has been no departure.

174 The weather is cold.

175 We call the attention of dry goods dealers to the advertisement of James Low & Co., in today's paper.

176 Mr. C. C. Spencer has another large sale of furniture, at his auction room, No. 50 Fourth street, this morning, at 10 o'clock. See his advertisement.

177 The North Carolina Legislature has chartered a company to construct a canal from Pamlico Sound to Chocowinity Bay, and resolved to endorse its bonds to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

178 WELLS & ARMSTRONG, merchant tailors,

5th street, Marble Hall buildings, advertise to the trade that they have received T. P. Whiffen's annual and summer report for 1855. Attention is directed to one of his principal cities.

179 Remond Dissertation.—A Washington letter says: "A distinction of one of our financial officers under the present administration, to a large amount, is severely whip-sawed here as having received new dues since. The gentleman is a resident of one of our principal cities."

180 Lopez & Handbary have received a lot of extra cigar cases. Among the brands they have one that sports the whip-saw name "Know Nothing." "Well, the name is awful, but the cigars are not. It is this only living with that name appertaining to goodness within the scope of our knowledge."

181 The Wisconsin papers inform us that Booth and Reynolds were not discharged from the custody of the United States Marshall because the Fugitive Slave law was unconstitutional, but because the indictment did not charge that Glover, who escaped from labor, was a slave, and therefore the office charged was not a crime.

182 Two men attending the races at Charleton, named Arthur Conner and A. Thompson, got into an alteration, which is said to have originated in Baltimore, when the former shot the latter through the cheek, inflicting a severe, but not, it is thought, a dangerous wound.

183 Brigham Young is building two large and beautiful houses adjoining which he occupies in Salt Lake City, to accommodate his increasing family. He has rejected in between fifty and sixty wives, and from forty to fifty children. Elder Kimball, one of the Mormon Apostles, has between sixty and seventy extra-sorts.

184 The world smiles.—"The world smiles, and is all rising last night—whether from the rain on Tuesday last, or from a gorse some where below, was a matter of doubt; but the most natural explanation is that a cloud at 6 o'clock, a mile above, had given way, and was receding at dark. Licking is swelling slowly and ice forming, rat." Capt. Guthrie informs us that he could not find his proses of marriage. Then when he tried to push her into an untenanted building, when she said, "No, I am the last habitation in the world." It is now, after a long examination, that he has exchanged at the request of the prosecution.—Col. Columbian, Thursday.

